

Blues day

Verse 1

It's a blues day

Not that kind when you're feeling a little bit rough

It's a blues day

Not that kind when life's being quite tough

Verse 2

It's a blues day

Not that kind after morsels of sleep

It's a blues day

Not that kind when your overthinking's deep

Pre chorus

It's a blues day cos it's got no clouds in the way

It's a blues day and the suns going to rain down on you

Chorus

The brightness the warmth the energy flowing

it's lit up my moment my sense of belonging

My time here right now is at one with the glowing

The life all around me is feeding and growing

Verse 3

It's a blues day

Not that kind when the glass is half empty

It's a blues day

Not that kind when no one's has any empathy

It's a blues day

Chorus

The brightness the warmth the energy flowing

It's lit up my moment my sense of belonging
My time here right now is at one with the glowing
The life all around me is feeding and growing

Post chorus line

The sun's going to rain down on you

Chorus

The brightness the warmth the energy flowing
It's lit up my moment my sense of belonging
My time here right now is at one with the glowing
The life all around me is feeding and growing

Outro

The sun's going to rain down on you
It's a blues day
