

Everything's Alright

(How it feels to play in the best band in the World)

The laughs and sounds
When this rocks being played my hands are creating Still amazed to this day

It's good it's great it's positively fine
Everything's alright
These are good times
My heart has love
For those around
This band is awesomeness combined

Our hearts beats as one
our musos converge
Our rhythms align Rock n rollin's going on

It's good it's great it's positively fine
Everything's alright
These are good times
My heart has love
For those around
This band is awesomeness combined

Everything's alright ...

We start and end as one
What happens between
Is a soul shaking time
And it's positively fine

It's good it's great it's positively fine
Everything's alright
These are good times
My heart has love
For those around
This band is awesomeness combined

Everything's alright
We're having good times
