

Yin Yang

Verse 1

Yin and Yang of colliding minds,
Opposing thoughts, we're out of time.
The Earth's divided by a force yet unseen.
Two powers clashing in a cosmic dream.
From core to the sky, it starts the war.
Polarity is why we're stuck in this endless score.

Pre-Chorus

Sun light rays fight the dark,
Fungi burns like a torch to spark,
A forested world where giants stand,
Reaching high unbroken land.
Our eyes and hearts, safe and strong,
Shutting out what's been so wrong.

Chorus

When sleep turns to wake, when dark turns to light,
New life begins, the Ying and Yang

Verse 2

Sapiens came with tribal rage,
Battling shadows in a timeless cage.
Instead of healing, the fight continues in vain.
Earth guardians lost in pain.
Hearts crave hurt hearts crave love,
Some tear down what they got from above.

Pre-Chorus

Sun light rays fight the dark,

Fungi burns like a torch to spark,
A forested world where giants stand,
Reaching high unbroken land.
Our eyes and hearts, safe and strong,
Shutting out what's been so wrong.

Bridge (spoken)

We battle ourselves, not the storm,
Lost in chaos, cold and torn.
Can't you see we're on borrowed time?
The Earth will heal, but we're on the line.

Verse 3

Time fleeting ghosts
Now it's real who's to blame?
Like Ying and Yang, they twist and sway
But for us, they cannot stay
The final clash. It's here at last
Gaia will remain after all

Chorus

When sleep turns to wake, when dark turns to light,
New life begins, the Ying and Yang
